SENIORS

HERBERT GROSSMAN

It is not whether we win or lose, but how we play the game.

MARY FORRESTER

School is a plaything
to be taken carelessly.

DALE HALL

Don't rest now, you have a "darn" long rest coming.

DELORES KEIFFER

To be or not to be that is the question.

GLEN HEWITT

A blond is his only weakness, but Oh, what a weakness!

MARY PHYLLIS SMITH

Life is an education,
not to be scorned.

JIM SIRK

His initiative in school is invigorating.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

We will start with Mary Forrester
She is a cousin of last year's Bob.
The class would be incomplete without her
Because she is always on the job.

Herb. Grossman is a member also
He comes and goes each day,
His job is to handle the dough
When the creditors come for pay.

Dale Hall is noted for salesmanship,
When the bunch undertakes a play or show.
They call on Hall to use his lip
For he can sell tickets—they know.

When the crowd is in need of a laugh
Then it's time to call on Glen Hewitt,
He cuts their blues in half
Because when he laughs he makes them do it.

Delores Mciffer is another one of the girls
She keeps the morale on high,
You can't have her now cause she's Thurl's
And he won't tell her good-bye.

The president of this bunch
Is a chap by the name of Jim Sirk,
They can always use his hunch
And from duty he will not shirk.

Last but not least comes Mary Phyllis Smith
The "Shorty" of the crowd,
A pleasant one to work with
And one of which the class is proud.

HISTORY OF SENIOR CLASS

We, the Senior Class of "43", started our seventh year of school with ten members, which was increased when Russell Lewis came to join our worthy class. Our social events of that year were limited to one party, which was held at the home of one of our classmates, Dale Hall.

The next year we passed the seventh goal post successfully. The school was honored by the eighth grade class with the same eleven members, but lost one person by the name of James Smith, who left us in the seventh month of school. Two parties were held that year, one a Chili Supper in the honor of our leaving member at the site of the old Alma Mater; the other social activity that year was a weiner roast at the home of Glen Hewitt.

As freshmen, our next year was gracefully started with ten members because Vernon Charles was retained in the eighth. Two of our members left us in March of 1940. Charles Hoch went into exile at Van Buren, and Mary Stanley left for Jonesboro. Our entertainment passed rather calmly that year with only two parties. One was an initiation party for us at the residence of one of the upper classman, Bob Forrester. Another, a return party, was at the home of one of our local favorites, Mary Phyllis Smith. Our sponser that year was Coach Floyd Davis.

Our next year was commenced in seemingly good order by eight members, but was sadly decreased by the departure of one of our members, Clifford Hunt. This was rather a tame year as far as activities were concerned although we had three parties that year. We were invited to a party at Ruth Riley's and had a return party at Jim Sirk's and one at Mary Phyllis Smith's. Our sponser that year was Miss Judy.

Our Junior year started with a bang. It kept going well during the year. Our Junior Play, "Slicker's Spill at Taterville" was a huge success, which called for an encore the following night. We also had a carnival which drew an interesting and spend-thrifty crowd.

Our sponser, Miss Collier, was largely responsible for our properous year. Our entertainment of the year was climaxed by a trip to Chicago with the Senior Class of "42". We had a delightful four day stay.

Here we are in our senior year trying to fill the shoes of those graduates who have partly paved the way for us. Our sponser this year is our new Principal, Mr. Emrick. We will soon be leaving a place of many delightful memories, "BANQUC HIGH SCHOOL."

Senior Class Play

The Senior Class Play entitled "Dummy" was presented November 18, 1942 at 8:00 at the High School Auditorium with a good crowd attending.

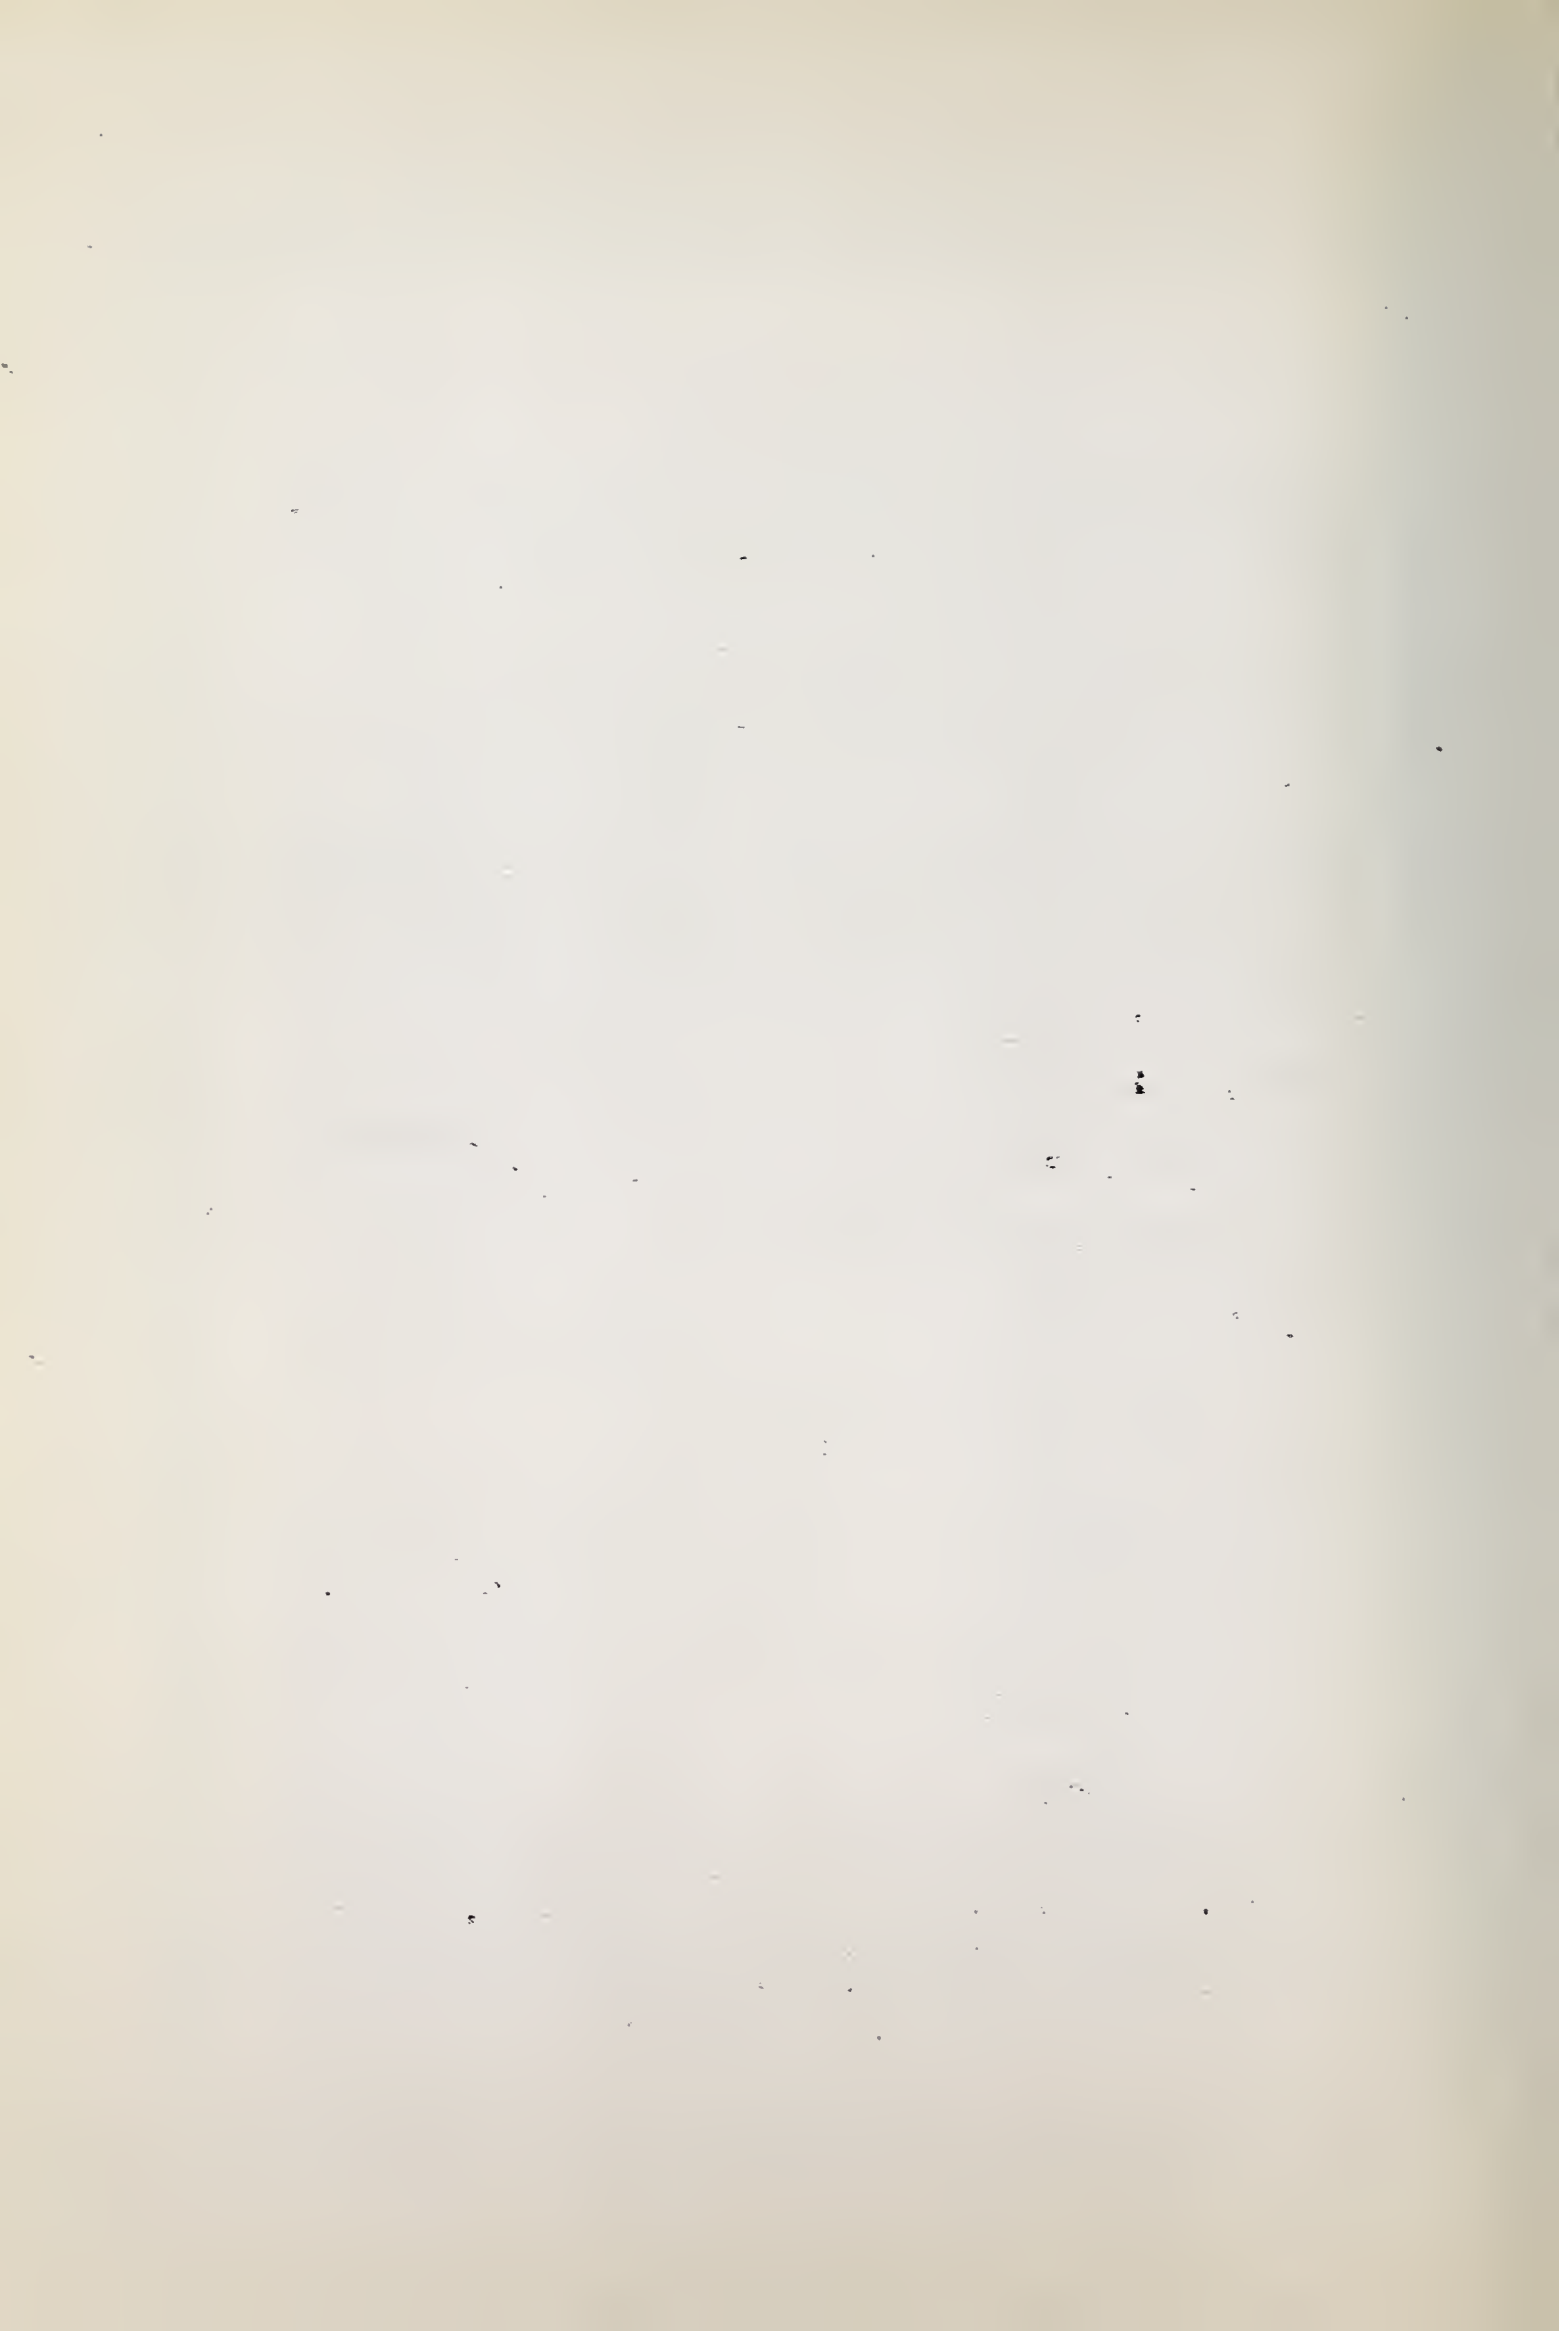

The cast of characters was as follows:

Montgomery Walton, absent minded Proffessor	Dale Hall
Mrs. Walton, his wife who is strong minded	Mary Phyllis Smith
Margaret, their daughter who hungers for romance	Mary Forrester
Jim Cameron, their nephew who might supply romance	Glen Hewitt
Curt Blair, who pretends to be dumb	Jim Sirk
Alaska, a detective	Herbert J. Grossman
Sam Hedges, a villian	John Pinkerton
Dorothy Burke, his assistant	Kathlene Riley
Sylvia, the maid	Delores Keiffer

Director, Madge Kline

The Seniors wish to thank everyone who in any way assisted in the success of the performance. They especially offer their thanks to John Pinkerton, a Freshman for his acceptance of a part in the play and to Kathlene Riley a Junior for her willingness to participate. Also they wish to thank the South Side Furniture Store for the use of their furniture.

A Farewell Party for Dale Hall who entered the Navy and Jim Sirk who will leave for the Army was held at the home of Mary Phyllis Smith Wednesday evening April 14. A good time was enjoyed by all. Those present were Glen Hewitt, Mary Forrester, Herbert Grossman, Esther Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Smith, the honored guests and the hostess.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

In 1943 from Banquo High School came 7 bashful seniors. There were three girls and four boys in the senior group. Way back when they started in the happy journey t hrough school they had lifelong ambitions ahead of them.. They all knew what they wanted to do there and then.

Dale D. Hall wanted to be public enemy No. 1. as I picked up today's extra. I see he slipped. He is warden at Sing Sing.

Herbert Grossman had a vision of a happy clear road ahead of him. He thought he could leave the girls alone. The other day a friend informed me that he is 'proud' fat her of five baby girls. (Father and girls doing O. K.)

Also in the headlines of today's news is the hero of the senior class 'Mr. Glen Hewitt .' He was the innocent little brute who loved nature and girls. Glen wanted to leave everyt hing alone, almost. All you can see in the newspapers, billboards, and newsreels is that never forgettable pharse, "Hewitt for Dogcatcher." Whoever would dream of Glen dea ling in politics.

Also that imposing and outstanding character, Delores Keiffier, whose only living desire was boys. She went to College and she showed them how to run it before she left. I under stand she is very happy now. She is head propessor in a boys school in Texas, where men are hopeless, 'she says.'

We also must contribute a few lines to that never forgettable person, Mary also called Forrester, after ruining Glen's life, Mary left Banquo to become unheard of for awhile. She is now in the W. A. A. C. so she can have plenty of he-men close by.

Senior Class Prophecy--

Also into the W. A. A. C. went Mary P. Smith. She surely likes the army. She sprung into a 'Mrs. Major's' job the other day. She didn't do bad for a girl who wanted to be an old maid. Being married isn't much worse.

And last and also least the one who says 'Good looks are Good Business,' Jim Sirk, the one, the only, man to join the W. A. V. E. S. He left to join the army, got mixed up, and joined the navy and WAVES to set it off good!

And so is the history of seven seniors, who might have been someone if they were someone.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

Upon the entry into the Junior Class, we find that Deloris Smyser, D Wayne Baird, and Anna Mae Charles have left us. De Wayne went to Van Buren, and Delores and Anna Mae went to Marion and Converse. The Juniors have spent a very pleasant year this year. At the first of the year, a weiner roast was held at the school house. The Juniors held a very successful Fall Festival, which brought a large crowd from other vicinities, and also netted the Juniors a satisfactory amount of cash. This class also sponsored a High School Queen Contest. Gladys Hedrick received the honor of being queen, and was crowned in a very impressive ceremony before the carnival began. The Junior Class entertained the Senior Class by taking them to the show the day after the carnival. On the whole, the Junior Class has had a very successful year with the help of all its members. Mrs. Ladge Kline was our sponsor this year, and helped in everything that we attempted to do. Other members of the faculty that helped to make our year successful are, John Enrick, Miss Compton, and Mrs. King.

SOPHMORE CLASS HISTORY

Beginning with the seventh grade we had fourteen members. Near the close of the mid-semester Betty Jo Smyser came into our class and Delores and Paul Drook left us. Our parties were held at Lydia Lou Shuman's and Joyce Ralston's Homes. We had two weiner roasts. Starting out the next year we had thirteen; we lost Victor Shoemaker and regained Bob Charles after four years absence from Banquo. The class parties were held as Lydia Lou Shuman's home, Morris Jennings's, and Earl Stephen's.

In the ninth grade we began with fourteen and gained two; Darl Stevens at the first of the year and Rheva Good at mid-semester; Jean Crooper entered at the latter part of the second semester. The present year we have seventeen, after losing Betty Jo Smyser to Marion, and gaining Franklin Welch from Martin Boots and also gaining Arthur Searles from Lancaster. We have held two class parties so far; one, a skating party held at the Idle Wylde; and the other, a theater party at Marion. We went to the show, "Orchester Wives", which was showing at the Indiana Theater.

One of the main events of this year was the scrap drive. Dallas Shuck, the president of our class, furnished an old gravel truck in which to haul the scrap. We undertook this job to help our country and to get class funds. We went to a show with some of the money we made on the scrap drive. The show was "Miss Annie Rooney."

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

1941

Beginning with the seventh grade we had Jim Grossman, Ruth Forrester, John Pinkerton, Phyllis Smyser, Garnet Baird, and Delmar Atkins, whom we unfortunately lost in December, 1940. In the last semester Phyllis Smyser left us.

Our first party was a wiener roast with the eighth grade at Earl Stephen's home at which we had a good time. The entertainment we had was: wink'em, two deep, a treasure hunt, and a few other games.

1942

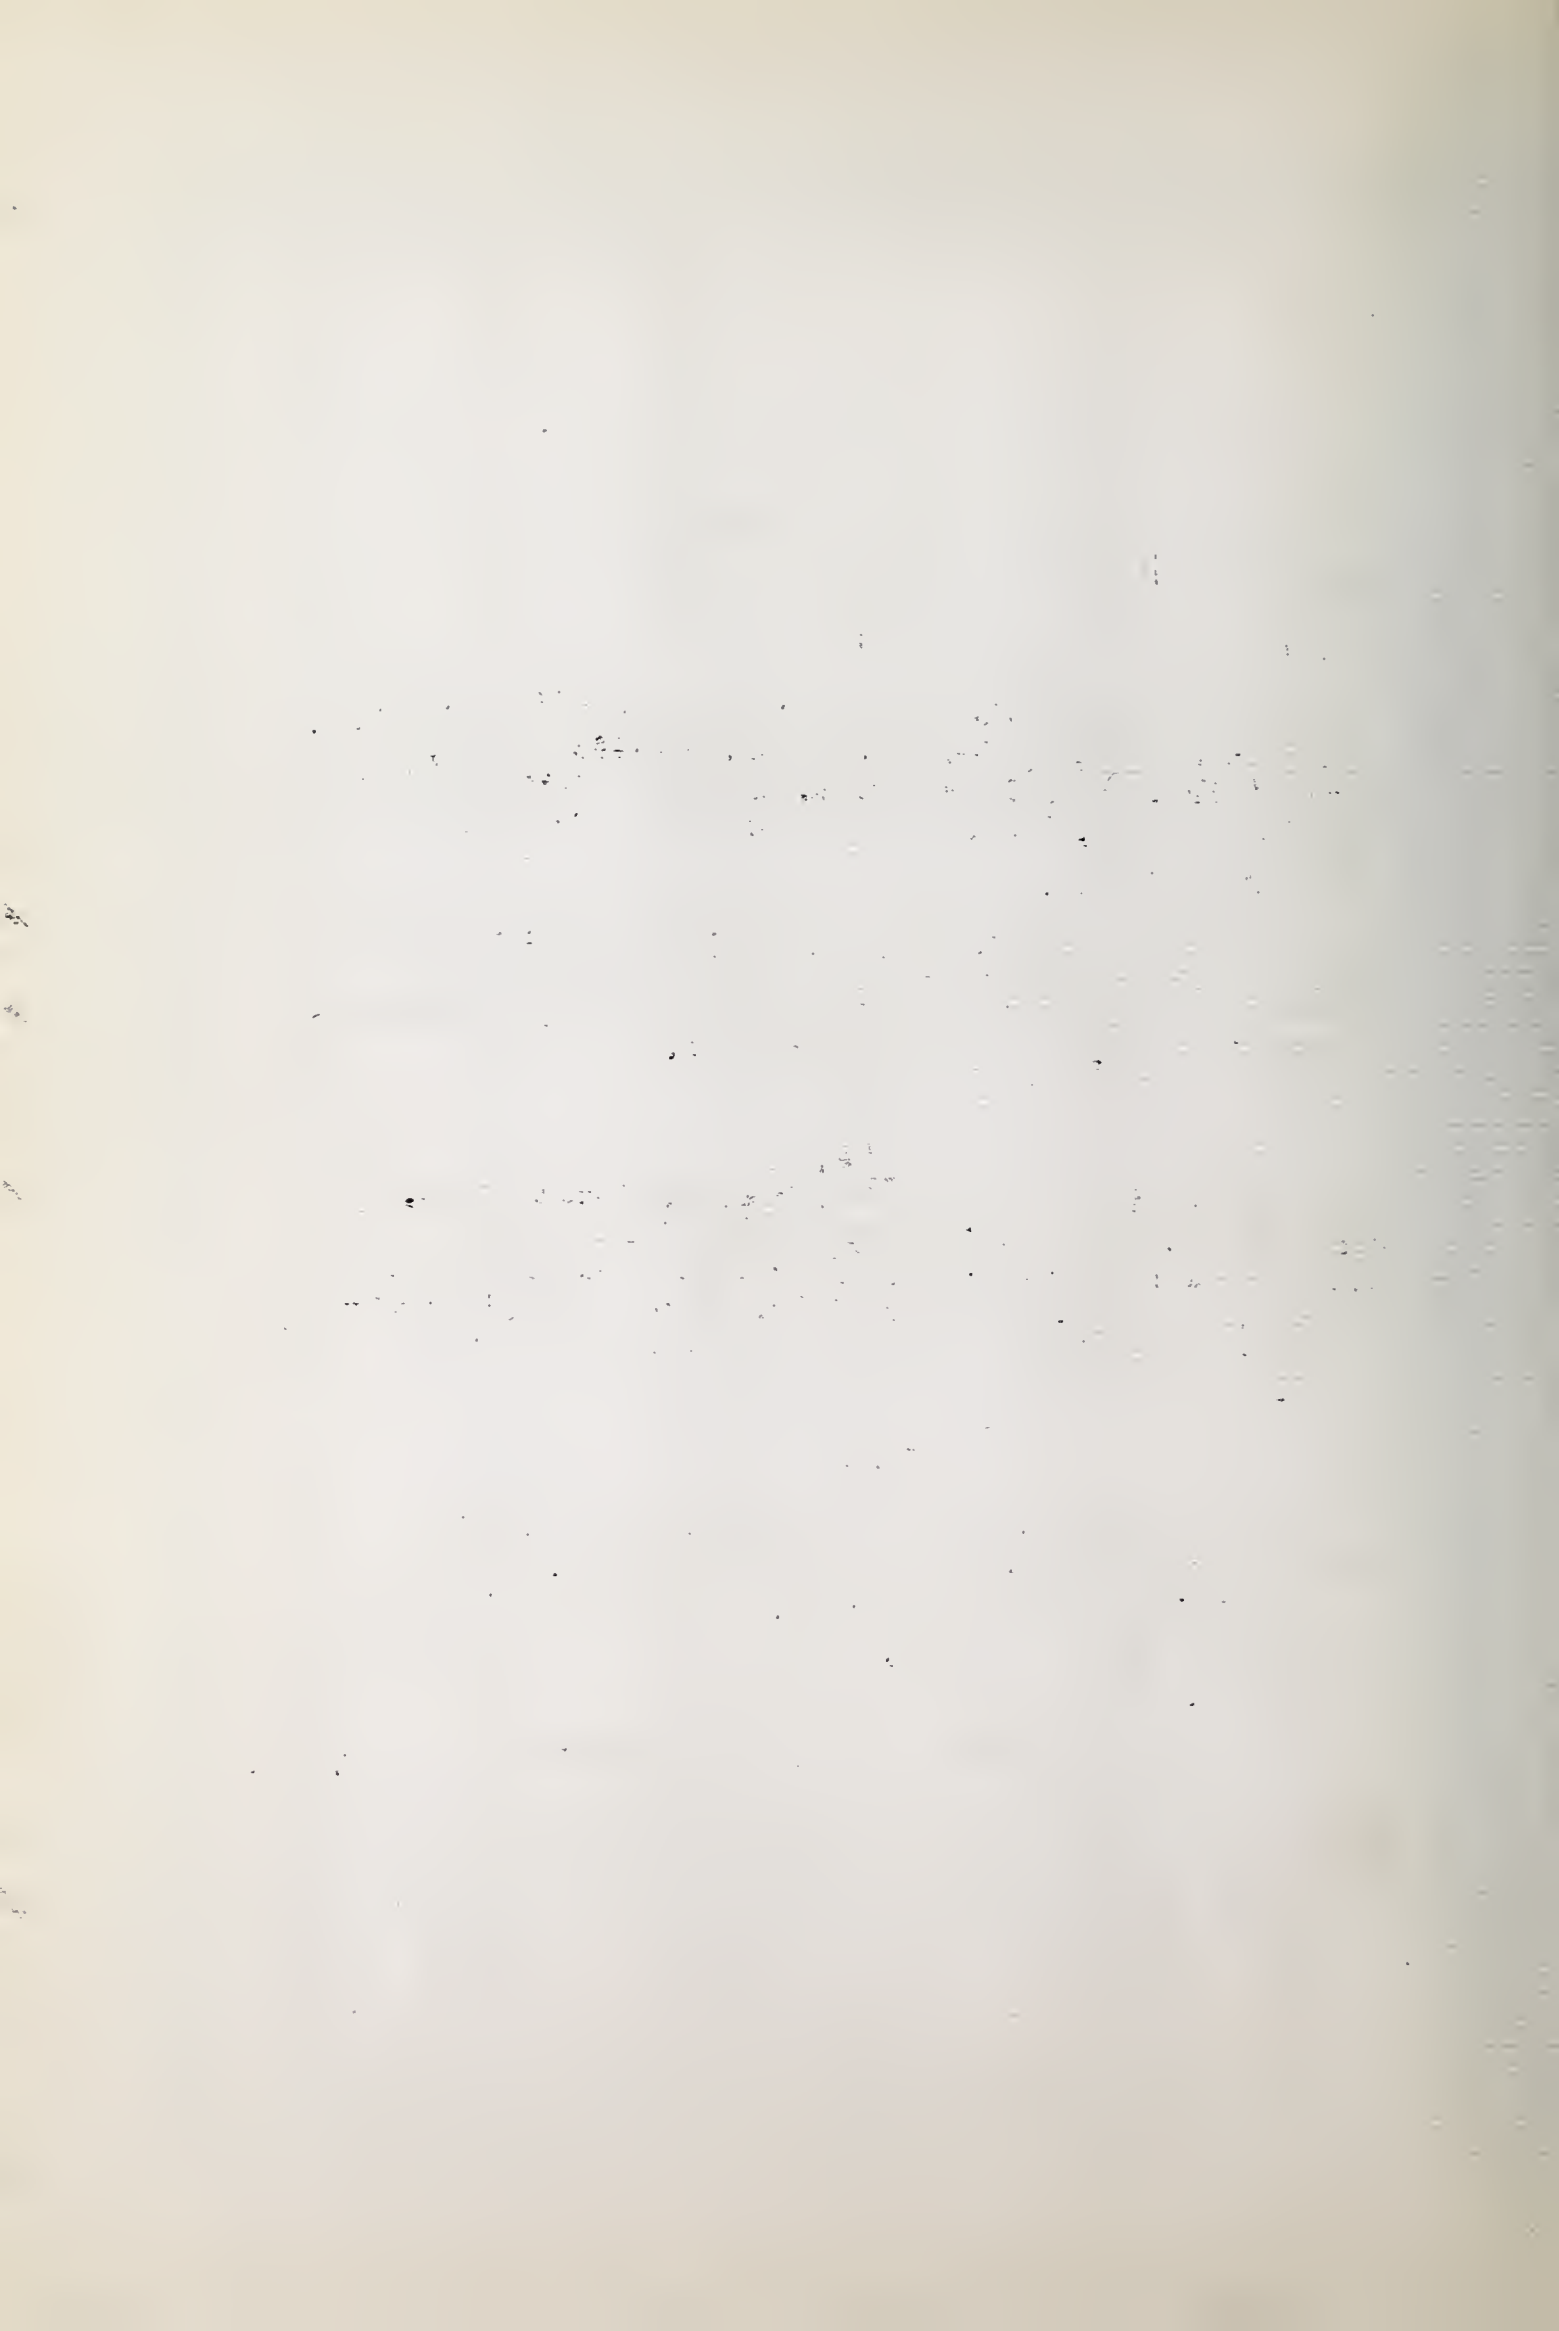

In the eighth we had Jim Grossman, Garnet Baird, John Pinkerton and Victor Shoemaker. Victor had to take the eighth grade over. Merrill Stevens moved here during the summer. Unfortunately, we lost Ruth Forrester who was unlucky and had to take the seventh grade again.

1943

In the ninth grade we had Jim Grossman, Merrill Stevens, John Pinkerton and Victor Shoemaker. Wayne Tippey came to us from Jefferson, Robert Gentner from McCulloch School in Marion, and Kathryn Searles from Lancaster.

We sold a few subscriptions for the Farmer's Guide.

Two boys who had a lot to do with the success of the baseball team this season were Herb and Paul Walton the "Brother Battery Setup". Herb would pitch 'em and "Mike" would catch 'em.

The Indians should whoop down the warpath next year season in a blaze of glory. They will be minus Sirk, Hall, and Hewitt who are graduating and Herb Walton who is leaving for the Service, but they have plenty of material to build one of the best teams in the county.

The boys who have played their last for Banquo High wish the team success. They'll be backing them up. Let's go Indians.

ACTIVITIES

Patron's Day

Patron's day was March twenty-sixth. The program was as follows: Songs and Recitations by the first six grades. The Girls Glee Club, and Trio gave selections. The Business meeting was held by Mr. Sailors, President. Later a Play, "Sadie Socks the Saboteurs", was presented. Patron's Day was enjoyed by more people this year than in previous years.

P. T. A.

The P.T.A. didnot meet every month this year, because of war times, although several programs were held for the purpose of gathering the parents, teachers and students together.

The 6fficers were: Mr. Howard Sailors
President
Mrs. John Hedrick,
Secretary and Treasurer

Girls Physical Education

The girls had soft ball, volley ball and hikes the first semester for their physical education. The second semester they started by having physical examinations which weeded out the Physically unfit and made a stiffer program possible. They had first aid, stunts, formal gymnastics, hikes, volley ball, and soccer. The aim was to develop endurance, quick and efficient body control, and to have a good time. This was, to a large extent, accomplished. The sportsmanship of most of the girls has been tops. Toward the last of the year we got a new shower, and mats, which should start next year off with a bang.
